

Miss Hapgood tells how she was cured of Fallopian and Ovarian Inflammationand escaped an awful operation by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - I suffered for four years with what the doctors called Salpingiris (inflammation of the fallopian tubes) and ovaritis, which are most distressing and painful ailments, affecting all the surrounding parts, undermining the constitution, and sapping the life forces. If you had seen me a year ago, before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and had noticed the sunken eyes, sallow complexion, and general emaciated condition, and compared that person with me as I am today, robust, hearty and well, you would not wonder that I feel thankful to you and your wonderful medicine, which restored me to new life and health in five months, and saved me from an awful operation."—Miss IRENE HAPGOOD, 1022 Sandwich St., Windsor, Ont.

Ovaritis or inflammation of the ovaries or fallopian tubes which adjoin the ovaries may result from suiden stopping of the monthly flow, from inflammation of the womb, and many other causes. The slightest indication of trouble with the ovaries, indicated by dull throbbing pain in the side, accompanied by heat and shooting pains, should claim your instant attention. It will not cure itself, and a hospital operation, with all its terrors, may easily result from newlest.

GOOD LIVING

Quite often results in bad health, because what is termed "good living" is usually the gratification of the palate without reference to the nutrition of the body. When the good liver is a business man and rises from a full meal to plunge at once into work requiring mental effort the result is almost sure to be disastrous, because digestion draws upon the same nervous forces which are employed in thought. In time the stomach becomes diseased, the processes of digestion and nutrition are imperfectly per-formed and there is a physical breakdown

One of the first things that will be at-tempted next week will be an attempt to liminate the two Cook County candle dates, and to prevent any prospective dark orse from Chicago, like Geneme Stewart from chicago, like Graeme Stewart or W. J. Calhoun or Charles G. Dawes, from getting his nose in the convention. There was a conference at the Weilington Hotel vestering forenoon between Yates, Hamilin and Sherman, and it is thought they had this end in view. The participants in the conference are exceedingly close-mouthed, and it is not known what the subject under discussion was. The fact that these three men met in conference was wensational, for there is helieved to be nothing in common between any of them, except burled of each other. An exception is noted as regards Hamilin and Sherman, who have been on irriedly terms from the start. It aroused a great deal of comment, nevertheless, and caused a great deal of speculation. The concerns of opinion is that the conference was for the purpose of weeding out Lowden and I beneen.

Speaker Cannan has shown so much partiality toward Attorney General Hamilin that it is settled in the mainds of the rest of the candidates that Cannon will be willing to whee the Cook County candidates out, and confine the nomination to the country. In this event the leading candidates would be Hamilin and Yates, with the chances decidedly in favor of Hamilin.

The application for habeas corpus was refused and the detective from Philadelphia, James C. Porsett, decided to leave for his home city at noon to-day. Judge Harvey asked Dorsett if he would not give him time to file an appeal before removing his arisoner from the State.

Horsett told the attorney that he was forced to leave shortly after 8 o'clack. He had intended to wait until to-day, to avoid spending two rights on the train but changed his plans. According to the order of the court, the prisoner was turned over to the Sheriff, from whose costedy she immediately passed to the Philadelphia detective.

The woman saw that a delay was important and asked for permission to go to her house to change her gown for a reaveling dress.

This the detective refused to allow. The carriage which had brought her to the Pour Courts was waiting, and she was hurried into it. Beside her sat Detective. Tate and Dersett of Philadelphia, and with the driver was Detective Cunning-hum of St. Louis.

While the detectives did not amounce their destination, it is thought that they went at once to East St. Louis where they would be out of the reach of a Misseuri process, and where they could still connect with an eastbound train.
